

Emily Andersen | SENIOR CONSULTANT

2525 NW Raleigh Street • Portland, Oregon 97210 • (503) 827-8089 • eandersen@longviewassociates.com

PROFILE

- Preliminary Licensing Proposal and License Application preparation
- Study plan and study report review and management
- Coordination of consultation meetings and communications
- Technical writing/editing
- Project budget management and tracking
- Project schedule management and tracking
- Word processing and database management
- Knowledge of federal and state statutes relating to hydropower and natural resources
- Familiarity with FERC guidance documents

EXPERIENCE Licensing Consultant to Seattle City Light (SCL) for the relicensing of the Boundary Project (Washington)

Manage document preparation, review, and production of Integrated Licensing Process (ILP) documents, including the Revised Study Plan (RSP), Initial and Updated Study Reports (ISR and USR), Preliminary Licensing Proposal (PLP) and License Application. Assist with administration, planning and facilitation of monthly internal team meetings. Assist in planning, logistics, follow up and documentation of stakeholder meetings and workshops. Maintain and manage the consultation record. Manage and track budget of LVA and its subcontractors working as part of the LVA strategic consultant team. 2005–present.

Client reference and contact: Barbara Greene, Project Manager, Relicensing Program Lead, (206) 615-1091

Licensing Consultant to Grant County Public Utility District No. 2 for license compliance of the Priest Rapids Project (Washington)

Assist with the preparation and review of an initial comprehensive annual report regarding the implementation of the Priest Rapids Project Pacific Lamprey Management Plan. 2009–present.

Client reference and contact: Mike Clement, Project Manager, (509) 754-5088 ext. 2633

Licensing Consultant to Portland General Electric's (PGE) Westside Relicensing Team for the Clackamas River Project (Oregon)

Provided support to a Fish and Aquatics Workgroup, including reviewing and editing study plans and reports and maintaining an annual record of planned studies and associated work items and a studies tracking database. Provided support for a Fish Passage Subgroup and an Instream Flow/Geomorphology Subgroup, including preparing formal meeting summaries and developing and maintaining an organizational system of subgroup activities. Assisted with document preparation, review, and production of the Draft License Application and Draft 401 Water Quality Certification Application. Managed preparation of Final License Application and provided support for settlement negotiations. 2001–2004.

Client reference and contact: David Heintzman, Project Manager, Hydro Licensing, (503) 464-8162

EXPERIENCE Licensing Consultant to Portland General Electric (PGE) for the relicensing of the Pelton Round Butte Project (Oregon)
(cont.)

Provided support to a Fisheries Technical Subcommittee (FTS), including assisting with meeting administration and communications, preparing formal meeting summaries and reference documents for FTS participants, and maintaining an organizational system of FTS workgroup activities. 2001–2004.

Client reference and contact: Julie Keil, Director of Hydro Licensing and Water Rights, (503) 464-8864

Licensing Consultant to Alcoa Power Generating Inc. (APGI) for the relicensing of the Tapoco Project (Tennessee/North Carolina)

Assisted with document preparation, review, and production of Applicant Prepared Environmental Assessment Process (APEA) documents, including the Preliminary Draft Environmental Assessment and Draft Environmental Assessment. Assisted with the development of a comprehensive Shoreline Management Plan (SMP): developed a comparison of recent SMPs for projects in the southeastern U.S. and assisted with the document preparation of the SMP. 2002–2003.

Client reference and contact: Norm Pierson, Property and Relicensing Manager, (865) 977-3326

Licensing Consultant to PacifiCorp

Conducted benchmarking analysis of FERC relicensings in the Pacific Northwest regarding required project lands for resource protection and mitigation. 2002–2003.

Client reference and contact: Mark Stenberg, Project Manager, (503) 813-6631

Licensing Consultant to the Yadkin Division of Alcoa Power Generating Inc. (APGI)

Conducted preliminary research of competitive and industry-owned project relicenses, focusing on the FERC-issued licenses and NEPA documents. Assisted with the preparation of an audit report of Yadkin's Private Recreation Facility Permitting Program. 2001–2003.

Client reference and contact: Gene Ellis, Licensing and Property Manager, (704) 422-5606

Environmental Consultant to U.S. Forest Service, Region 6

Conducted benchmarking analysis of FERC relicensings regarding sediment transport mitigation measures and ramping rates required as part of a FERC license and/or settlement agreement. 2003.

Client reference and contact: Dean Grover, Fisheries Biologist, (541) 416-6673

Environmental Consultant to Portland General Electric's (PGE) Engineering Department

Assisted with the technical edit of an application for a site certificate for the Port Westward Generating Project. 2002.

Client reference and contact: Arya Behbehani-Divers, Civil Engineer, (503) 464-8141

EDUCATION Master in Marine Affairs. University of Washington. 2001.

Bachelor of Science in Biology. University of Washington. 1997.